Exhibitors at the Juneau County Fair will conduct themselves in an orderly, well behaved manner at all time. Excessive horseplay or running in the areas where animals are housed, being groomed, exercised or shown will not be tolerated. Use of shaving cream, water balloons, cap guns, squirt guns, lighters, etc. is prohibited anywhere within the buildings or on the fairgrounds during the fair.

Exhibitors engaged in any of these behaviors will be escorted from the grounds and will forfeit all premium monies and ribbons.

Every precaution will be taken to properly protect animals, exhibits and the public at the fair. The management and its committees, officers, employees, agents and representatives, however, will not be responsible or liable for the safety of animals, exhibitors, exhibits, or their employees, or for the losses sustained because of robbery, damage by fire, accident or other cause. Exhibitors assume all liability risks when entering exhibits at the fair. Exhibitors wishing to insure their livestock or exhibits must do so at their own expense.
